

1. Create a new system call in xv6 with the following specifications:
 - a. Name of the system call will be your `firstname_lastname`
 - b. The system call will print your name and date of birth
 - c. The system call will return your student id
2. Create a user program in xv6 that will call your newly added system call
3. From xv6 shell, run the user program